

From: Jeff Wimble
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/16/02 4:30pm
Subject: MICROSOFT SETTLEMENT

Microsoft should have never been attacked as they were in the first place. It was a silly, pointless investigation from start to finish, especially the last six or eight years of it.

I hope the investigation proved to Congress and the American people just how silly, petty, and useless the anti-trust division is. I hope congress drastically cuts their funding in future years.